ISU College Dems Elect Officers for 2005-2006 School Year

Normal, Ill. – The Illinois State University College Democrats have elected their executive board for the 2005-2006 school year.

“I can not wait to get started, we have seen some great successes this past year and I really believe that we can build on those for the future,” said newly elected Vice President Marie Guillo.

Elections took place during the College Dems general meeting on Tuesday night. Reelected to their positions included; Logan Faron President, Veronica Libman Treasurer, Nick Dagers Communications Director, and Fundraising Chair Zach Koutsky. Newly elected officers include; Vice President Marie Guillo, Secretary Katie Kelly, Registered Student Organization (RSO) Liaison Stephanie Parks, Web Editor Rebecca Secord, Historian Brendan Sullivan and Events Coordinator Graham Kwiatkowski.

“The ISU College Dems have had a great year and I know that with the new members of the executive board combined with our returning members we can do great things next year,” said ISU Dems President Logan Faron.

The ISU College Dems are a registered student organization at Illinois State University. The primary goal of the ISU College Dems is to help elect Democrats to office at all levels of government and to raise civic participation among the 20,000 students of Illinois State University and the surrounding community.
