Statement from ISU College Dems President Gugerty

Normal, Ill. – In response to the recent front page story of the Daily Vidette Illinois State College Dems President Bill Gugerty has said the following.

“The ISU College Dems have not broken any laws while registering students to vote. While under state statute deputy registrars are not allowed to be partisan while registering voters, there is no statute that forbids partisanship while using motor voter forms. The ISU College Dems have always used motor voter forms and intend on continuing to register college students’ democrat, republican, or other to vote in the November election.”
